

Life Path Evaluator – The Six Factors

The Environment

Think about where you will be both when doing activities to achieve the goals and where you will be after achieving the goal. Choose environments that inspire and motivate you. Where do you feel at your best? Where are you when your creativity is at its highest level?

Notes: _____

The People

Surround yourself with positive, supportive individuals. The people you work with and spend time around is part of the key that will determine your destiny!

Notes: _____

The Appreciation

Cultivate humility and gratitude for those who support you in this journey. Their contributions are invaluable to your growth and success.

Notes: _____

Helping Others

Remember that helping others can be one of the most satisfying ways to achieve your goals. It's the secret ingredient that makes life so fulfilling and success more valuable.

Notes: _____

Predictability

Engage in activities you know you enjoy and are likely to stick with. This will provide a sense of comfort and stability during your journey.

Notes: _____

Mystery

Don't shy away from taking risks or embracing new experiences. Engaging in activities with uncertain outcomes can lead to significant learning and growth.

Notes: _____

Life Path Evaluator

You're considering two life paths. Use this worksheet to label and score each one using the six success factors:

My Ideal Balance: _____% Predictability / _____% Mystery

Path 1 Title: _____

Path 2 Title: _____

Factor	Path 1 Score (1–10)	Path 2 Score (1–10)
The Environment
The People
The Appreciation
Helping Others
Predictability/Mystery

Which path scored higher? _____

Why might this be the right choice for you?
